COCHIN | 3 Nights

Set foot into Fort Kochi and you will be instantly transported to a different time period. This place is steeped in the history and culture of all who have occupied it through the ages. Its roots and essence are unique in its diversity. Set on a magnificent estuary, serene Kochi has been drawing traders, explorers and travellers to its shores for over 600 years. Nowhere else in India could you find such an intriguing mix: giant Chinese fishing nets, a 450-year-old synagogue, ancient mosques, Portuguese and Dutch colonial-era houses, and the crumbling remains of the colonial British Raj.

PRAKRITI SHAKTI

When nature is the healer, your healing starts from within and touches the physical, mental and spiritual planes of well-being. This holistic approach brings about cure in its true sense. The kind of healing where your body and mind are both repaired and rejuvenated, where the root cause of your ailment is treated and not merely the symptoms that manifest as diseases. As much as Prakriti Shakti is about finding the root cause of the symptom, it is also about preventive cure.

In Prakriti Shakti, a physician's role is not restricted to attending to the medical needs of the patient. The doctor helps you understand your body, mind and spirit, introduces you to the innate healing force and handholds you through the healing process. For this process the physicians harness the elements of nature along with the teachings of yoga and meditation.

KUMARAKOM | 2 Nights

Kerala's famous backwaters are a labyrinthine network of tree-fringed lagoons, idyllic lakes, and river systems, running parallel to the Arabian Sea along the Malabar coast. Quaint towns and charming villages dot the banks of these interconnected canals. This unique ecosystem is home to a diverse variety of flora and fauna. The heart of Kerala's backwaters is the vast Vembanad lake and the intimate Ashtamudi lake. Cruising down the tranquil backwaters aboard traditional kettuvallams or houseboats is a quintessential Kerala experience, especially enhanced by local seafood and complemented by the region's iconic palm wine.
